

I am definitely opposed to removing restrictions that limit consolidation of media ownership. I am deeply troubled by the amount of media control that already resides with just a few major companies, thereby allowing only extremely limited viewpoints to be offered to the viewing and listening public. I'm also concerned about those corporations acting primarily to protect their economic interests at a cost to public welfare when deciding which information to broadcast. Please act to help address these important concerns and protect the legitimacy of our public airways.